Jazzin' Jammin' & Jivin' - Jazz on Film

January 18, 2010 - March 1, 2010

The Jazz Heritage Center presents Jazzin' Jammin' & Jivin': Jazz on Film, an exhibit of fifty film posters on loan from the Separate Cinema Archive which highlight an eight decade period during which some of the greatest jazz musicians appeared on film including Bessie Smith, Duke Ellington, Louis Armstrong, Billie Holiday, Ella Fitzgerald, Cab Calloway, Louis Jordan, Dizzy Gillespie, and many others.

The exhibit is being presented as part of the Jazz Heritage Center's rollout of its new Media and Education Center, a 39-seat private theater which, along with the Lush Life Gallery and Koret Heritage Lobby exhibit space, comprises the three major components of San Francisco's only permanent cultural and educational complex dedicated to the long history of jazz in the city. Located on Fillmore Street in the heart of the Fillmore Jazz Preservation District, the non-profit Jazz Heritage Center is part jazz museum, part jazz cultural center, and part jazz art gallery. By showcasing art and historical exhibitions, screening films and providing youth programming, the organization's mission is to preserve and promote jazz, an American national treasure, while celebrating its presence as an active, living art form in San Francisco and beyond.

The exhibit will be displayed in the Koret Heritage Lobby exhibit space and inside the Media and Education Center located at 1330 Fillmore St. San Francisco, CA
