VINTAGE VISIONS: African American Movie Posters

A custom exhibit from the Separate Cinema Archive

October 8, 2010 - January 8, 2011

The Prince George's African American Museum and Cultural Center will celebrate and inspire the Community through the cultivation, preservation, and presentation of the cultural and artistic contributions of African Americans in Prince George's County, Maryland. The PGAAMCC will be recognized as a national and international model for innovative documentation, interpretation, presentation, and preservation of local and regional African American history and culture. The museum will be constructed on a 2.5 acre site in North Brentwood, the first municipality in Prince George's County incorporated by African American citizens. Gallery 110 @ the Gateway Arts Center is PGAAMCC's interim exhibition and public programming space, located in the Prince George's County, Maryland Gateway Arts District at 3901 Rhode Island Avenue, Brentwood, MD.
