Black Is Black Ain't* - A limited engagement exhibit 10/30 - 11/12

OPENING RECEPTION - Tuesday October 31st, 5:00 - 7:00 p.m.

In conjunction with the Vassar Africana Studies Dept., the Vassar Film Dept., and the Dean of the Faculty's Office, the Frances Lehman Loeb Art Center will open Black Is Black Ain't, an exhibition that celebrates the contributions of African Americans to the film industry. On loan from The Separate Cinema Archive, the film posters chronicle the long journey of this country's black film stars, including Paul Robeson, Ethel Waters, Lena Horne, Dorothy Dandridge, Sidney Poitier, and Spike Lee, among others.

The Frances Lehman Loeb Art Center, which is celebrating its 10th anniversary, was founded in 1864 as the Vassar College Art Gallery. The current 36,400 square foot facility, designed by Cesar Pelli and named after its primary donor, charts the history of art from antiquity to the present and comprises over 15,000 works, including paintings, sculptures, drawings, prints, photographs, and glass and ceramic wares. The Loeb Art Center is located Vassar College, Raymond Ave, Poughkeepsie, N.Y. <http://FLLAC.vassar.edu>
